

HELZGLORIAM is a Black Metal band based in Persia, the capital of The Orient.

Formed on northern Aryan land by Attila Magnus (BloodSeeker) in 2013, the group is ruled by the dark magic of passion. Inspired by the memories of ancient Satanic cults in The East, the musicians accept SATAN as their creator and intend to promote the mysteries of chaos in reality.

The ideology of HELZGLORIAM is the essence of pure knowledge, the philosophy of enlightenment in the exploration of existence.

The members of HELZGLORIAM denounce Judaism, Islam and Christianity...

'The Infernal Monarchy' composed by HELZGLORIAM will fill the void in humanity, when world war consumes religious morbidity.

HELZGLORIAM commands human beings to understand ego, to explore id, to challenge the superego.

HELZGLORIAM demands humanity witness the vision revealed by our Black Metal music, as the apocalypse of religion will render civilization vulnerable and yearning for truth. We have embraced our nature and we have considered our crisis, by the circumstances of our geography.

We are devoid of misunderstandings, we have accepted the knowledge we learned and we will share our teachings with the world, as humanity descends into the madness of global jihad.

Death is whispering in the desert winds and SATAN is rising with the sandstorms...
